

Oreana Financial Services Complaint Policy

Oreana Financial Services Pty Ltd takes feedback seriously, and your satisfaction is important to us. We have procedures in place to resolve any concerns you may have, promptly and fairly.

This policy is intended to provide you with an overview of how to submit a complaint, the process you can expect, and important timeframes for resolving and escalating matters.

This is in line with the ASIC Corporations, Credit and Superannuation (Internal Dispute Resolution) Instrument, made by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) and was implemented on 5 October 2021.

Responding to Standard Complaints

Acknowledgment of your complaint

You will be provided with an acknowledgement of your complaint within 24 hours (or 1 business day) upon receipt, or as soon as practicable.

Unless you have informed us otherwise, the form of communication used to respond to your complaint will typically reflect the way it was received.

Internal Dispute Resolution Response (IDR)

If your complaint cannot be resolved within 5 business days, Oreana Financial Services Pty Ltd will investigate further. You will receive a formal response to your complaint (known as an International Dispute Resolution Response) informing you of the following:

- Outcome of your complaint, be it confirmation of resolution or reasons why the complaint was rejected or partially rejected.
- Your right to escalate to AFCA if you are not satisfied with the IDR response.
- Contact details of AFCA.

An IDR response will be provided to you within 30 business days upon receipt of your (standard) complaint.

- You have received an explanation of apology where no further action could be taken to address the complaint.

Should you still wish for an IDR response, we will provide you with a written response accordingly.

Delay in IDR

There may be reasonable circumstances for complaints not having been resolved within the relevant timeframe. This may be due to the complexity of the complaint, or a delay in receiving necessary information to finalise our investigations.

Should this occur, you will be provided with an IDR delay notification before the timeframe is up. This notification will include:

- Reasons for the delay.
- Your right to complain to AFCA if you are dissatisfied; and
- The contact details of AFCA

Escalation

Upon providing you with an IDR response, should you be dissatisfied with the findings from the complaint investigation, you may then escalate your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).
